Introduction

BMC Electroplast Pvt. Ltd. is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of personal information entrusted to us. We recognize the importance of responsible data management and ensure that all information is collected, processed, stored, and protected in accordance with applicable laws and accepted industry practices. This Privacy Policy explains how information is obtained through our website, enquiries, recruitment activities, customer interactions, supplier communications, and other business operations. By using our website or submitting information, you acknowledge this Privacy Policy and consent to the practices described herein.

Information We Collect

We may collect personal details, company information, project requirements, business correspondence, recruitment documents, resumes, qualifications, certifications, and other information voluntarily submitted by users. We may also automatically collect technical information including IP address, browser type, operating system, device information, pages visited, cookies, timestamps, and usage statistics to improve our services and website performance.

How We Use Your Information

Information is used for responding to enquiries, providing engineering solutions, preparing quotations, maintaining customer and supplier relationships, processing recruitment applications, improving website functionality, protecting website security, conducting internal reporting, fulfilling contractual obligations, and complying with applicable legal and regulatory requirements. We collect only information reasonably necessary for these purposes.

Cookies

Cookies help improve functionality, remember preferences, analyze website traffic, enhance user experience, and maintain website security. Users may disable cookies through browser settings, although certain features may become unavailable.

Sharing of Information

We do not sell or rent personal information. Information may be shared only with trusted business partners, professional advisors, service providers, regulators where required by law, or during lawful corporate restructuring. Appropriate confidentiality obligations are maintained.

Data Security

Reasonable technical, administrative, and organizational safeguards are implemented to protect information from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction. Although every effort is made to maintain security, no system can guarantee absolute protection.

Data Retention

Information is retained only as long as necessary for business, legal, contractual, accounting, regulatory, or recruitment purposes and is securely deleted or anonymized when no longer required.

Your Rights

Subject to applicable law, you may request access, correction, deletion where permitted, withdrawal of consent, or clarification regarding the processing of your personal information.
